

Invitation to the 8th Stress Research Conference

Tuesday, November 8 2011

This is an invitation to the 8th Stress Research Conference. The purpose of the conference is to promote and discuss the latest stress research and to strengthen and coordinate Danish stress research.

The conference is organized by Copenhagen Stress Research Centre, which is a cooperation between Department of Occupational and Environmental Medicine, Bispebjerg Hospital, the Department of Social Medicine, University of Copenhagen and the National Research Centre for Working Environment.

The first key note speaker at the conference is PhD Jody Gittel, who is an associate professor of management at Brandeis University's Heller School for Social Policy and Management, and Acting Faculty Director of the MIT Leadership Center. Jody Gittel will present research on social capital and improvement of performance. After lunch, Professor Hugo Westerlund from Stockholm University will lecture on health effects of retirement from work. Hugo Westerlund got his PhD in health effects of downsizing in Sweden in the 1990ies.

We encourage stress researchers to submit abstracts for research presentations and posters. Posters from other scientific meetings can be used again.

Participants:

Researchers, decision makers and others with an interest in stress research.
